HOME WEDDINGS FOR BOTH COUPLES

Leopold Sommer Weds Miss Rohe in the Church of the Advent.

chard H. Cobden, of St.

West Sist st. Manhattan, was married to Chester Eugene Barrett, of Manhattan, last evening, at the home of her parents. The bride wore a gown of white charmeuse, trimmed with lace and pearls, and a veil of cap effect, caught up with orange blossoms. The matron of honor was Mrs. Jason H. Conger, a sister of the bride, and Dr. Conger, the matron of honor's husband, was best man. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joseph Probst, rector of St. Paul's Episcopai Church.

SEWELL-WADAMS.

Parterre Boxholders.

Company on Mondays, even Mondays, even Mondays, even Mondays, even Mondays, even Mondays, bud matiness; Mrs. L. S. Lud-

Tenor Fails to Sing to Crowd, but Purchases Church.

The bridegroom, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Barrett, of Syracuse, N. Y., is a lawyer in Manhattan. Costly Picture.

THRONG PLANS TO

of Orange. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. The couple left on a Southern honeymoon, and morning, before anybody was there, upon their return they will live in East and that rehearsals at the Metropoli-SMITH—CUSHING.

Washington, N. J., Nov. 11.—Miss ellie E. Cushing, daughter of John ushing, of Washington, and Edward to Smith, son of W.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, the Rev. Simon B. Walsh.

Wiss Anna Cushing, a sister of the bride, and carnelius J. Kelly, of Phillipsburg, a cousin of nearly, which was followed by the bride, was bridesmaid, and Carnelius J. Kelly, of Phillipsburg, a cousin of nearly, which was followed by the bride, was bridesmaid, and Carnelius J. Kelly, of Phillipsburg, a cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Carnelius J. Kelly, of Phillipsburg, a cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Carnelius J. Kelly, of Phillipsburg, a cousin of the bride, after which the cremmy a reception was held at the bride, and upon the cremmy a reception was held at the bride, and upon the cremmy a reception was held at the bride, and upon the cremmy a reception was held at the studio, and his when he called at the studio, and his morning.

Carnso was accompanied by Scotti when he called at the studio, and his morning.

Carnso was accompanied by Scotti when he called at the studio, and his morning.

Carnso was accompanied by Scotti when he called at the studio, and his morning.

Carnso was accompanied by Scotti when he called at the studio, and his morning.

Carnso was accompanied by Scotti when he called at the studio, and his morning.

Carnso was accompanied by Scotti when he called at the studio, and the studio of the studio of the wastisfactory for he bough the season is far under way. The list of boxholders is as fol-

War Wins Artists' Aid.

were received by Jacob H. Schiff, treasurer of the New York State Board of the American Red Cross, for the American Red Cross Fund. Total contributions to date are $340,75040. Among yesterday's receipts were $1,000 from "Anen" and $150 from Henry L. Stim-

Heading yesterday's contributions to the fund for the American Ambulance Hospital in Paris were $100 from the Courteen Seed Company and $100 from Miss Emma C. Jones. Yesterday's receipts amounted to $423, making a total to date of $145,699.96. Mrs. Whitney, 16 Eest 47th st., announced that $195 was received yesterday for the fund for the relief of the women and children of France. The total to date is $27,017.

VIEW HAVEMEYER ART

Throng of Society Folk Examine Treasures To Be Sold.

The first public view of the art treas ures contained in the Havemeyer home, Madison av. and 38th st., attracted a large throng of society folk yesterday, many of whom, it is said, will be bid-many of whom, it is said, will be bidders and buyers at the sale, which begins en Monday and will be conducted by Thomas E. Kirby, of the American Art Association, assisted by Otto Hernet.

Those who inspected the Gobelins tapestries, bronzes, bric-a-brac and other objects of art yesterday included the Count and Countess del Drago, Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs, Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley, Cooper Hewitt and the Misses Hewitt, William A. Nash, Thomas Van Valkenberg, Herbert L. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Benjamin, Mrs. Kimball, of Boston: Mrs. C. K. G. Billings, F. W. Savin, Mrs. W. Force and Frank Sturgis. The exhibition will continue to-

NEWS OF PLAYS AND PLAYERS

The Metropolitan Opera Company made public yesterday the list of box-bolders for the sesson of 1914-15. With the personnel of the list transcending in brilliance that of any presenting year, the Metropolitan announces of the Sadeler, Minister of State for Belyions year, the Metropolitan announces of the Sadeler, Minister of State for Belyions year, the Metropolitan announces of the Sadeler, Minister of State for Belyions year, the Metropolitan announces of the Sadeler, Minister of State for Belyions year, the Metropolitan announces of the Sadeler, Minister of State for Belyions year, the Metropolitan announces of the Sadeler, Minister of State for Belyions year, the Metropolitan announces of the Sadeler, Minister of State for Belyions year, the Metropolitan announces of the Sadeler, Minister of State for Belyions year, the Metropolitan announces of the Sadeler, Minister of State for Belyions year, the Metropolitan announces of the Sadeler, Minister of State for Belyions year, the Metropolitan announces of the Sadeler, Minister of State for Belyions year, the Metropolitan announces of the Sadeler, Minister of State for Belyions year, the Metropolitan announces of the Sadeler, Minister of State for Belyions year, the Metropolitan announces of the Sadeler, Minister of State for Belyions year. August Belmont is chairman of Daniel Frohman, met yesterday af- gium was discussed by officials her manency of the Actors' Fund may be cate precisely the cases where he was really necessary, but also to get brought about. It was decided to invite touch representatives from the various or ganizations in the city, allied with the to rei atrical enterprises for an early meeting for devising ways and means. The fund is now taking care of nearly two hundred sick and destitute actors, weekly, all the year around; some of them are the most respected and honored of the theatrical profession, but whose names are never disclosed except to the members of the executive committee, and the fund is maintaining the Actors Fund home on Staten Island, which is a home for the retired veterans of the profession in their declining years; thus the fund is extending temporary relief and burying the destitute members of the profession in all parts of America. But its resources are rapidly dis-

II. H. Frazee will present for the first time in New York a new modern play in four acts called, "What it Means to a Woman," on Thursday even-E. H. Gould and F. Whitehouse, hitherto unknown as playwrights. The cast includes Rita Jolivet, Frank Mills, Joseph Kilgour, Laura Nelson Hall, Alice John, Catharine Calhoun, Jean Newcombe, Juliet Shelby, Marion Lord, Florence St. Leonard, Royden Keith, Arthur Hyman and others.

WILSON TO NAME

Germany's Fear of Aid Reaching Belgian Army Moves President.

FEDERAL CONTROL

Rockefeller Workers Unite with Others to Avoid Duplication of Efforts.

Washington, Nov. II.—Concentration of the Belgian relief movements in the United States and the appointment of commission by President Wilson to the distri-

gis. The exhibition will continue today and to-morrow.

The paintings will be sold Wednesday evening at the American Art Gallarger of the stricken Belgians.

Germany is understood to have feared that the Belgian army might be aided.

It is believed that the President will be recommended to the presentation.

many to complain.

Secretary Bryan said to day that Ambassador Gerard, at Berlin, had informed the department that Germany had given assurances that she would not interfere with any American relief expedition to Belgium, and that he had not been apprised of any change in the arrangement. He denied reports that Germany had insisted that certain restrictions be placed on relief work.

Actors' Fund Endeavors to Meet Financial Obligations—Other Notes.

The finance committee of the Actors'
Fund, consisting of Mare Klaw, chairFund, consisting of Mare Klaw, chairment, the finance of the Actors' Fund, consisting of Mare Klaw, chairment, the finance of the Actors' ment, the finance of the Commission which the President of the Commission which the President of the Commission which the President of the Com-dramatic enterprises and theatrical clubs to a special meeting of the fund for a further conference.

Among the plays to be presented on the new programme at the Princess Theatre is "In the Fog," by Frederick Truesdell.

As respects money contributions they may send contributions to the Belgian Relief Committee, 10 Bridge st., New York City. The Belgian Minterprise of the original principles of the original contributions and the princess of the original principles of the original principles.

Service of the servic

Grand Tier Besholders.

Grand

MME. GADSKI SINGS

Her Enthusiastic Audience Overflows onto Stage.

popular soprano gave her annual song recital. The crowd at Aacolian all overflowed upon the stage.

Mme. Gadski's art is by this time too well known to call for extended comment. Her voice is always a fine one and her programmes are always.

First came a group of Shcumann numbers, in which the singer gave pleasure in "Stille Traenen," "Nordnocht and Fruehlingsnacht," and then a group of Schubert, including "Who Is Sylvia" and "ark, Hark the Lark." For an encore she gave the inevitable "Erl King," to the manifest delight of her audience.

Ex-Sheriff Prominent

Judges of several courts, members of the "Billion Dollar" jury panel, in which he took so much pride, politi-cians and officials by the hundreds and numerous poor men and women of the East Side and elsewhere for whom he had done some favor, all gathered yes terday to pay their last tribute to ex Sheriff Julius Harburger, who died of Monday 19th. Monday night.
The Harburger home, at 46 St. Mark's

E. Newburger, Justice Leonard A. Gie-gerich, Dr. Solomon Goldenkranz, Na-than Metager, William H. McCormick, Dr. Meyer Wolff and Albert Biumen-

cate precisely the cases where help was really necessary, but also to get in touch with those who fied to Holland, France or England and induce them to return to work. The foundation is to supply such refugees with provisions, clothing, farm implements, shop tools, horses and other livestock, but all conditional upon their again becoming producers.

Announcement was made yesterday by the Belgian Relief Committee and

OBITUARY.

Time Curtain Rises To-day

Coward Shoe

"Made in America"

When every resident of the U. S. A. will demand and use American made goods exclusivelythis country will enter a noontide of prosperity which will be shared by all who are thrifty.

Show Your Industrial Patriotism by wearing, consuming and booming goods

"Made in United States"

J. S. Coward

JAMES S. COWARD, 264-274 Greenwich St., N. Y.

SOLD NOWHERE ELSE Mail Orders Filled

Send for Catalogue

Continuing tomorrow and Saturday same hour SILO'S Fifth Avenue Art Galleries

MAIN ENTRANCE, 1, 3 and 5 West 45th St., ALL THE

of MRS. CHESTER B. WEEKS, South Orange, N. J.

Long Island, and the Emery Metho-Episcopal Church in Jersey City. a 1863 Mr. Winans joined the New-Conference and had appointments Bernardsville, Prospect st. Methodist Episcopal Church, Paterson; Greenville De Grout Methodist Episcopal Church, De Grout Methodist Episcopai Castal Newark: Arlington, Watsessing, Stanhope and Waterloo, Allendale and Cedar Cliff and Haldon. Mr. Winans leaves three sons and one daughter.

Gun, in his 85th year. Funeral private. Interment at convenience of

MOTHER AMELIA FOWLER.

Albany, Nov. 11. Mother Amelia fowler, a descendant of the Livingston amily and Admiral De Grasse, of Rev-clutionary fame, was buried in the acred Heart Convent cemetery here

OBITUARY.

THE REV. C. C. WINANS.

Caldwell, N. J., Nov. II.—The Rev. Charles Clark Winans, eighty-two years old, a retired Methodist minister, was found dead this morning on the floor of his room in his home, 35 Gould av., by his son, John R. Winans. Mr. Winans had been in poor health for some time. He was born in Hanover, Morris County. He joined the Newark Methodist Episcopal Church in 1851, and was made a local preacher soon afterward. In 1853 he was made a junior preacher of the Rockland circuit and preached his first sermon May Mother Amelia was born in the historic Livingston manor eighty-four years ago. She was twenty-six when the joined the Order of the Sacred Heart, later becoming mother superior at the convent at Kenwood. She was related to the De Bau family, which came to New York from France, and swas a cousin of Bayard Urquhart Livingston, of this city, who attended the function of the Countess Laugier-Villars and Mrs. Gerald Redmond, of New York and Paris. The Misses Fowier, of Baltimore, new travelling in Europe, are nieces.

DR. HARRY H. PEMBERTON.

DR. HARRY H. PEMBERTON.

Mr. Winans was appointed to the Hackensack Methodist Episcopal Church in 1856, serving about three months, when he gave up the ministry owing to ill health and engaged in business in Newark. In 1860 he re-entered the ministry and filled pulpits in the De Kalb av. Methodist church, Brooklyn; the Tappan Methodist Episcopal Church the practice of medicine, and had since the practice of medicine, and had since devoted his time to developing his real estate holdings in this city and Oceanport. Dr. Pemberton was twice married. He was divorced from his first wife about ten years ago. He leaves a son and a daughter by the first marviage.

Wember 10, aged 39. Funeral to-day, 2 p. m.

HOECKER, Henry, 170 Amsterdam av., November 9, aged 37. Funeral to-morrow, 2 p. m.

MORA, Barbara, 228 East 42d st., November 10, aged 59. Funeral to-day, 2 p. m.

Functar services. An arguny are from the following services to a fact to services to a f techell Morrison, in the osta year her age. Funeral services at 20 ast 49th st., on Saturday, November 4, at 10:30 a.m. Interment at Voodlawn. Friends are kindly re-

Merrick Stevens. Funeral services at the Second Congregational Church, Greenwich, Conn., on Thursday, No-vember 12, at 11 a.m. Carriages will meet the train leaving Grand Central Station 9:18 a.m. Interment at the convenience of the family.

WHITNEY- At his residence, 10 Pc lar st. Brooklyn, on Tuesday, No-vember 10, Daniel D. Whitney, Fu-neral service at Sands Street Memo-rial Methodist Episcopal Church, Honry and Clark sts., Brooklyn, on Friday afternoon, November 13, at 2 o'clock.

ember 19, aged 39. Funeral to-day of Miss Gertrude Robe

he Rev. George Hath the Hitchcock Memo-meres, officiated.

is a member of the set of White Plains. Blanch Gelien, daughter.

is Gelien's gown, which with taile embroidered in the vell was fastened by au and she carried bride

A RELIEF MAGNET

Orange, N. J., Nov. 11.—The wedding of Miss Dorcas Burtcheal Wadams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Wadams, of 107 Alden st., Orange, and Ralph Emerson Sewell of East Orange, and Rolphe Emerson Sewell of East Orange, and Holy Trinity Church, West Orange. The Rev. Archdeacon Frederick Carter officiated.

Miss Elizabeth Gordon, of West Orange, attended the bride as maid of honor, and Miss Gladys Wadams was flower girl. Charles Landell Sewell, a brother of the bridegroom, was hest man and the ushers were Frederick Wadams, brother of the bridegroom, was hest man and the ushers were Frederick Wadams, brother of the bride; George Baker, of Forest Hill, and Samuel Neill, of Orange. A reception followed at the ellie E. Cushing, daughter of John ushing, of Washington, and Edward co Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, of Philipsburg, were married the statement that he had promised to come again to-day sent most of the correction of the company was determined to be on hand

The admirers of Mme. Johanna Gad-iki, and they are many, turned out in force yesterday afternoon when the one and her programmes are always judiciously chosen from the master works of German lieder. There was no departure from the rule yesterday her audience.

Then came three songs of Franz and three of Brahms, followed by a group of Woif, Mendelssohn and Strauss.

Men Attend.

Place, was not large enough to accommodate even one half of those who came.

The funeral services were conducted

Mr. Winans was appointed to the ready Long-Legs. Gaiety

Panihea New York
The Law of the Land 48th St.
Under Cover Cover
The Only Girl Sth St.
A Perfect Lady Hudson
Lieb Vaterland iving Place
Omar Standard
Twin Beds Fulton
On Trial Candler
Outcast Lyceum
That Sort Harris
The Phantom Rival. Belasco
My Lady's Dress Playhouse
The Lady Sortess Prayhouse
The Lilac Domino 4th St.
Inposent Editing
Eliging
Experience Booth
Mr. Wu Maxine Ellion!

vear of his age, at peace after long illness. Funeral services private.

Rulls. Stephen A., 18 Avaion av., Jamaica, November 10, aged 49. Services to-day, 8 p. m.

NEW JERSEY.

ALLIMAND. Louis, Cedar Grove, November 10, aged 51.

DELAFIELD—On Tuesday, November
10, 1914, at Riverdale-on-Hudson, Juia Livingston Delaneld, daughter of the late Major Joseph and Julia Delaneld, in the 78th year of her age funeral service at the residence of his age, at peace after long illness. Funeral services private.

NEW JERSEY.

ALLIMAND, Louis, Cedar Grove, November 10, aged 51.

DERIVAUX, Charles, 353 South 9th st.,
Newark, November 11.

Delaneld, daughter
of the late Major Joseph and Julia
Delaneld, in the 78th year of her age
Funeral service at the residence of her brother, Maturin L. Delaneld,
Fieldston, Riverdale-on-Hudson,
Juia Livingston Delaneld,
Fieldston, Riverdale-on-Hudson,
Juia Livingston Delaneld, for the age
Funeral service at the residence of
her brother, Maturin L. Delaneld,
Fieldston, Riverdale-on-Hudson,
Jores Candler
of the late Major Joseph and Julia
Delaneld, in the 78th year of her age
Funeral service at the residence of
her brother, Maturin L. Delaneld,
Fieldston, Riverdale-on-Hudson,
Jores Candler
On Trial Cand

8:30—Little Angel of Canyon Creek Vitagraph

THIS AFTERNOON AT 2:30

FURNISHMENTS removed from the superb Chateau

MORRISON On Wednesday, November 11, at her late residence, 20 East 49th st., Abby Putnam, wife of David Mitchell Morrison, in the 65th year at his residence, 417 Riverside Drive, New York, Herbert Barton, of Green-wich, Conn. aged 59 years, husband of Lilla Field and father of Weld

TINKER-Suddenly, on Wednesday, November 11, 1914, Henry C. Tinker. Funeral services will be held at St. Bartholomow's Church, corner 44th st. and Madison ave., on Friday afternoon at half past two o'clock.